Why We Unite and Why You Should Join Us

In the wake of the January teacher strike, the L.A. Unified school board's vote to call on the legislature to cap charter schools to break the strike, and changes in Sacramento that will impact the local education landscape, it's more important than ever that we protect great schools in Los Angeles. One of the best ways to do that is by making sure more voters know and care about our local elections and how they impact our kids, families and education. As you know, next Tuesday, March 5, 2019, parts of our city will vote to choose their next L.A. Unified School Board Member. When our communities vote, politicians are more likely to put kids first. Our conversations with voters will help drive turnout at the polls on Tuesday.

Thanks,

Cassy

Subject: <RSVP> Call Today re LAUSD Parcel Tax; and BD 5 Charter "Rock the Vote" Event Saturday w Nick Melvoin & Ana Ponce

Importance: High

Hi everyone,

I am writing to provide you with time-sensitive updates and reminders regarding:

- Today's 5:30pm member call on LAUSD's potential parcel tax effort and charter inclusion, which we are hearing could come up for a vote as soon as this Thursday (email Jason Rudolph to RSVP);
- The LA Charter Community's Rock the Vote Event this Saturday with Nick Melvoin and Ana Ponce (click here to RSVP);
- And an introduction to our newest team member, Luis Figueroa who will be supporting member schools in BD 4.

RSVP for Today's Member Call at 5:30pm re LA Charter Parcel Tax Inclusion

If you haven't already, please RSVP to join today's member call at 5:30pm, which will include important updates on parcel tax advocacy. Email Jason Rudolph (jrudolph@ccsa.org) to RSVP and receive the dial-in number.

Thanks to our collective advocacy, the LA charter community, including charters within LAUSD boundaries authorized by LACOE and the SBE, are currently included in the draft parcel tax resolution, ballot language, and short ballot language that is being presented during the Committee of the Whole meeting today. If a parcel tax passes with proportional inclusion of charters, which we are still fighting for, your schools could benefit from as much as $500 to $1000 additional dollars per pupil annually.

We thank LAAC members Carrie Wagner (GALS), Johnathan Williams (The Accelerated Schools), John Vargas (ISANA), and Dustin Katch (Aspire) for representing the LA charter community at today's board meeting.

We are listening carefully during the presentation today for board member pushback again charter inclusion. We heard yesterday that the vote on the parcel tax may be moved to this Thursday, February 28 and will update you immediately if this is confirmed. We must continue to monitor whether board members have an appetite to amend language including charter schools in this resolution, but including charters in the initial draft is a major first step. We may need to mobilize quickly, and will alert you if we run into any issues over the coming hours and days.

RSVP and Recruit Your School Community: Saturday, March 2 "Get Out the Vote Event" with Nick Melvoin and Ana Ponce

As a culmination of the non-partisan civic engagement campaign our parent organizing team has been leading in Board District 5 since the new year, we invite you and your school community to join us this Saturday, March 2 at Alta Public Schools in Huntington Park for a "Charter Community Unites to Rock the Vote" event. We will be joined by L.A. Unified Board Member Nick Melvoin and Ana <Reminder> Please RSVP for Tomorrow's Charte...

We would love for every LAAC member to recruit 5 people from your school to join us, and of course, we hope you can attend. *Please note: a flyer, social media, and email language will be coming for you to circulate to your school by 1pm today. Since this is a non-partisan event, you can email all of this information directly to your families.
